> starter," to be woted to the most popular wholesale liquor-dealer of the city. The use ful instrument is made of rosewood, silver-tipped, and is mounted with ivory. It is on exhibition at M'Carthy's, 293 Main street. Estival Park Concert. This afternoon Estival park, at the head of Vance street, will be opened for the reception of visitors. The cool, shady nooks of this charming park are most inviting. In the evening Arnold's band will give a concert, elections from the best composers. A politic corps of attendants will be present to wait upon all guests. Melodious strains of music, pleasant breezes, cool draughts of lemonade and beer, with other delicacies, will be among the attractions.

To-morrow week, at Estival park, St. Jo-

Calvary Church Choir. The above-named thoir, assisted by leading amateurs and a full orchestra, will present three operettas—Cox and Bow, Il Jacebi, and Pauline, the Belle of Saratoga—at Leubrie's Theater, next Thursday and Friday nights and at a mattnee Saturday. The operettas will be presented under the man-agement of Mr. James Kirkland, with Prof. Emile Levy as musical director and George landwerker conductor. The sale of reserve seats will commence to-morrow afternson at Kirkland's hat store. Among the leading singers are Misses Jennie Camp. Maggie Apperson, Jennie Jones, Lizzie M'Clelland, and Messra. W. J. Steele, Bell W. Etheridge and George L. Castner. Coronation Extravaganza-Thanks. The Extravaganza is an excitement of the past, and has resulted in signal success. The committee of ladies who undertook and car-ried through the enterprise desire to return heir grateful thanks to the public for their liberal patronage; to the morfling papers, APPRAL and Avalanche, which, in a spirit of great liberality, did all the printing we desired of them free of charge; to S. C. Toof & Co. for their liberal donation in tickets and programmes. To Mr. Buhler, the scenic artist, we are indebted for the production of our gorgeous transformation scenes, and for the general stage management. In volun-teering his taste and time, he has contributed largely to our success. We also tender our sincere thanks to Prof. Handwerker for his efficient aid and kindness in training the children; to Prof. Saxby for his valuable time given to perfecting the children in the dances; to Brown & Jones for the use of their ulding for rehearsals; to the firemen and policemen who were in attendance to guard against accidents; and, as for the little folks engaged in the performance, we have no words to thank them sufficiently for their words to thank them sundently for their sweet and patient efforts to please and to give bread to the orphans.

Mrs. Jack Doyle, Mrs. Annie M. Phillips, Mrs. M. L. Selden, Mrs. R. M. Drake, Mrs. Keller Anderson, Miss Mary Walker, Miss Nannie Bowles, Miss Lula Nichols. Coronation Extravaganza.

At Leubrie's Theater matinee yesterday the Extravaganza was repeated by the little people before a very large audience. As the "Queen of Heaven, Juno," Miss Lulu Nichs was exceedingly attractive, surrounded norus in quite a clever and artistic manner and made herself generally useful in giving the scene effect. Miss Mamie Thompson, as 'Queen of May," received the attention of e maids of honor and the Mayers graci y and gracefully. As "Queen of the Fair-ies," Miss Madge Doyle shone a bright and particular star as a votary of Terpsi-chore. Her dancing was grace personified. Little Miss Bettie Selden danced in fairy-like style, so light that she would not brush the dew from a flower. Miss Hattle Nowland, as "Queen of the Gypsies," played the part exceedingly well and in keeping with the character. She was addressed in a neat speech by Master Willie Saffarans, who delivered it in manly and appropriate style. The "Queen of Flowers," Miss May Proudfit, was typical of the flowers of May, as she stood surrounded by the charming little group of flower-girls. Each and every character was artistically portrayed by the young amateurs. The dressing was rich and ap-propriate, and the stage effect was pleasing to a high degree. The Coronation Ex-travaganca should be repeated. There are hundreds of people in the city who failed to witness its and scores of those who enjoyed it desire to see it again. To Mrs. Pickett, who origi-nated and worked up the delightful attraction, too much praise cannot be given. It was to her a labor of love carried out to a perfection that gave pleasure to a large num-ber of people, old as well as young.
